

Have fun recap!

Ashley Wilson phones Michael to know about the rafting activities. She doesn't know if her French friend is a beginner or an expert.

He proposes two activities: the High Adventure Tour is for the experts. It costs $99 but the Gentle Day trip is for the beginners. It costs $74.

You need shorts, a bathing suit (un maillot) and a wool sweater.

In the end, she doesn't know what activity she will choose.
